MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE
HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE

SUBJECT: Exploitation of the Anders Collection

1. Lt. Col. Clifford J. Moore and Lt. Paul E. Weaver of your Office informally advised the Chief, Foreign Documents Division of CIA on 6 March 1951 that:

a. The Director of Intelligence, Air Force, is willing to assume financial and operational responsibility for the exploitation of the Anders Collection, which is now at the Library of Congress on loan from the Hoover Library for a period of one year.

b. Exploitation of the Collection can begin immediately.

c. Requirements submitted by the CIA offices and the IAC member agencies in connection with the exploitation of this Project will be accepted.

d. Reports resulting from the exploitation in fulfillment of the requirements submitted will be reproduced and disseminated to CIA and the IAC member agencies in the numbers which have been requested.

2. If the above conditions are agreeable, it is requested that CIA be notified at the earliest practicable date after which requirements and other related material will be transmitted through established channels.
